MORE "WANTS" than any other Newspaper Pub. lished on the face of the Globe?

Answer:-Because the Best is the Cheapest, and the People Know It.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1888.

Mayor Hewitt Inadvertently Lets the Cat Out of the Bag.

The County Democracy's Neat Little Scheme Exposed.

Smith and Beekman to Resign Before Hewitt Leaves Office.

The details of the plot of the County Democracy to obtain control of the Depart ment of Public Works and the Law Department for the ensuing four years has been dis-

D.Lowber Smith and Henry R Beekman are to resign and to be reappointed Commissioner of Public Works and Corporation Counsel respectively some time between Dec. 10 and Jan. 1, and will fight to maintain themselves in office for four years.

Mayor Hewitt hinted this yesterday, and the Tammany Hall leaders, who had hoped that THE EVENING WORLD'S assertion that such a scheme was brewing was not true. are to-day obliged to admit that there now seems to exist no doubt that the County Democracy, with the assistance of Mayor Hewitt, will attempt to deprive Tammany of the choicest fruits of her recent victory.

Tammany Hall men had based their hopes on Mayor Hewitt. They did not believe that he would place himself on record as a law-breaker by appointing successors to Commis-sioner D. Lowber Smith and Corporation Counsel Beekman for full terms from Dec. 10.

Dec. 10. They did not believe that Mayor Hewitt would dare set himself up as a court of last resort and declare the unconstitutionality of the Consolidation act, which makes the term of office of those two officials expire May 1, A prominent Tammany Hall man said to-

"Yes, sir; the Counties are going to try to steal the Public Works and the Corporation Counsel's office. There is no use of further coddling ourselves with the belief that they won't.

"Mayor Hewitt has let the cat out of the bag. He says that there exists no conspiracy.

"Of course not. Mayor Hewitt is too honorable a gentleman to become a political con-spirator.

"Neither would be violate the law which plainly says that the terms of office of the Commissioner and the Corporation Counsel commissioner and the Corporation Counsel expire May I.

'Uncle Abram's resources are many, and he has found a way to avoid being both a conspirator and a law-breaker, and he has been getting the evidence ready in advance the consequence of t to prove his innocence.

"He asserted yesterday that he would fill every vacancy which exists or may exist prior to Jan. 1, and takes the trouble to tell the reporters that if Corporation Counsel Beekman were to resign he would appoint his successor.

"In that statement is to be found the meat in the cocoanut. It reveals every detail of the

The position of the Counties is that the

"The position of the Counties is that the Consolidation act is unconstitutional, and that the terms of office of the officials to be appointed expires Dec. 10.

"Mark mytwords. Some time between Dec 10 and Jan. 1 D. Lowber Smith and Henry R. Beekman will resign.

"According to his previously expressed intention Mayor Hewitt will fill the vacancies most probably by the reappointment of the same individuals.

"They will not be appointed for any

'They will not be appointed for any cified time, but for 'unexpired terms.'

specified time, but for 'unexpired terms.'

'If the position of the County Democracy that the Consolidation act is unconstitutional is correct, the 'unexpired terms' for which they will be appointed will end four years from Dec. 10, 1888. If not they will go out of office May 1 next.

'By this clever arrangement Mayor Hewitt will clear himself both of the charge of conspiracy and law-breaking.

'He will simply appoint for 'unexpired terms, and will let the incumbents of the offices fight it out in the courts with the men whom Mayor Grant will appoint next May, as he suggested in his interview of yesterday, when he maid:

whom Mayor Grant will appoint next May, as he suggested in his interview of yesterday, when he said:

"If anybody objected to my action in the matter it would be his duty to go to the courts and test the question."

"This is the scheme, you may depend on it. It is a pretty scheme, too.

"Mayor Grant's appointees will find a lively time before them next Summer when they try to take possession of those two departments."

Asked why he thought that D. Lowber Smith and Corporation Counsel Beekman

Saked why he thought that D. Lowber Smith and Corporation Counsel Beekman would be reappointed, the gentleman said that they probably would not agree to the scheme if they were not to benefit personally by it.

Jokers Playing White-Cap Pranks. CINCINNATI, Dec. 5.—The excitement about White Caps in Southern Ohio, notably in Brown County, continues, and is kept alive by numer-ous and startling rumors. The facts are, however, that only two persons have been whipped as yet, the last victim being Adam Barkes, of Sar-dinia, but notices written in red ink and bear-ing frightful devices are plentiful. It is easy to see that practical jokers can materially assist in this business. It is said that the authorities will make extraordinary efforts to find and punish whoever may be guilty of this crime. Their Hours and Wages Reduced. READING, Dec. 5.-The Philadelphia and Read-Reading, Dec. 5.—The Philaderphia and resulting Railroad Company has posted notices in all of its shops notifying its employees that on and after to-day eight hours will be a day's labor, instead of ten as heretofore, with a proportionate reduction in wages. The cause of the reduction is due to a suspension of the coal mines, and all persons connected with the coal traffic will also be reduced to eight hours. Three or four thousand men is about the number affected along the entire system. The men ap-pear satisfied.

Assassinated at His Own Door.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 5.—Wm. Meitzner, a quiet, inoffensive jeweller, of Whistler, was murdered at his own door by an assassin Mon-day night. There is no clue to the murderer.

Value of Advertisements

"Do you believe in advertising?" said a prominent lawyer, a day or two ago. "Well, rather; and in the hidden advertisement more than in any other. I remember, one day, reading a very interesting story, that ended in what I took to be a puff for Dr. Piercer's PLEARANT PURGATIVE PRILETS. I threw down the paper in a rage. Not a week after that I needed some medicine of that kind, and went and lought these same little pills." Did I find them good?" "Why, yes, the best thing of the kind I ever saw, but that has nothing is do with the first question, and I only mention the loke on myself to show that advertising does pay." "."

MAYOR O'BRIEN AND THE MAID.

The Vermont School-Teacher's Thanks Wants to Send Him Her Picture.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Bosrow, Dec. 5. - Mayor O'Brien, a Thanks giving turkey, a note from a country schoolteacher in Vermont and the gift of a gold watch from the Mayor have been among the topics of talk the past few days. Some of the local papers have stated that the Mayor was taken in, but if he was it was in the goodness of his heart and in believing that the note he received was written with honest intentions.

The letter which the Mayor has received from the Vermont young lady certainly indicates that His Honor was right in believing that the young lady wrote her note in good faith, and that she sppreciates the present received from His Honor. The letter which came to the Mayor in to-day's mail was as follows:

EAST RANDOLPH, Vt., Dec. 2, 1888.

came to the Mayor in to-day's mail was as follows:

East Randelpr, Vt., Dec. 2, 1888.

Mr. O'Brien.

Much Respected Friend: I hardly know how to begin this letter to you after receiving such a beautiful gift from yon last evening. Words cannot begin to express the thanks which I return to you in this letter.

When I wrote the note, little did I ever expect to receive a reply, and when Mr. Rolfe, the Giobe correspondent, called on me ast evening with the telegram bearing the news, I was so surprised I could not give him anything but a disconnected account. I will try and express myself more clearly in this letter. Nothing could have been more acceptable. I am an only child. I was graduated at the Randolph State Normal School four years ago. Since then I have taught three years, and one summer operated a typewriter for a law firm in New York. I was obliged to give up teaching on account of ill-health for a time. I have never been able to purchase a watch and chain, so I have slways borrowed one, and now to receive such a valuable watch from you I am very truly grateful, and I think I can afford to get a nice chain to attach to it. I was so pleased on receiving it that I could not express myself. I assure you it was a great surprise. I know now that there is one good. Democrat. I think a man of your heart ought to be a Republican. This may lead me to turn and change my politics: at least, I shall always cherish kind affections for one who has been so kind to me. The watch is beautiful. I have worn it to church to-day, feeling very proud of the watch and the giver. Mr. Rolfe, the Giobe correspondent, spoke in very high terms of you. I think you well worthy of being re-elected Mayor, and one that the city of Boston may well feel proud of. You will not need to go to Quincy Market next year to purchase a Thanksgiving turkey, for I assure you. If I am alive, you shall receive as nice a turkey for Thanksgiving as the State of Vermont can afford. The watch came just in time, as I go in my school to-morrow morning, and th

New York's Vote for State Officers. ers have completed their work. Deputy Bec retary of State Willers enumerated the defective ballots. For Milton H. Merwin 22,858 votes were returned as given in Onondago County for were returned as given in Unondago County for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court. The Board directed that they be not canvassed for the reason that the title of the office as desig-nated by the constitution and laws of the State is Justice of the Supreme Court. None of the changes by reason of defective ballots affect the result of the election.

The totals are as follows:

1.096.

Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—Gray, 634,878; Rumsey, 631,453; Stevens, 31,178; Mc-Parlin, 3,841; Geraw, 3,523; Wascott, 596.
Constitutional Amendment—For, 310,696; against, 50,143; defective—for, 187,418; against, 5,679.

Mitchell Unable to Fight.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.—Charley Mitchell, the pugilist, is still at Atlantic City suffering from two or three fractures of the bones of the left hand, the pain of which he first felt two weeks ago. An operation was performed yesterday. It consisted in loosening the tissues of the hand and thus freeing certain nerves which were bound down by an osseous formation. His physician says he will remain in Atlantic City until the hand is well, adding, also, that the condition of his hand would prevent his fighting any one. The following telegram was received here:

MENTAPOLIS, Dec. 3.

Leave here to-night for Chicago. Expect to spatters with Forarty. Reach Philadelphia Sunday afternoon. Will consult with Mitchell on Monday Have sent challenges and forfeits, mine to Sullivan, Fogarty's to Dempsey and Toff Wall.

DOMDITCE MCCAPPREY.

For Sweet Charity's Sake.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] BRIDGEFORT, Conn., Dec. 5.—At the armory last evening was opened the "festival of the year" under the direction of the Society of Associated Charities for Industrial Relief. The Associated Charities for Industrial Relief. The organization is composed of the prominent ladies of Bridgeport. The booths represent the twelve months and are artistically arranged. The armory is profusely decorated and lighted. Col. T. L. Watson, of Watson, Gibson & Co., New York, opened the fair, and a grand march of 300 ladies, in costumes representing the different months of the year, followed. A court dance and Maypole dance were executed by young misses and masters dressed in colonial contumes. Over six thousand spectators attended.

First Shot, Then Hanged Him.

CANYON CITY, Col., Dec. 5.—George Witherill, who is charged with the murder of Chas. R. Me-Kain near this place about a month ago, and also with killing two other men in this State, aralso with killing two other men in this State, arrived here from Denver Monday to stand trial. At 4 o'clock this morning twenty armed men overpowered the Sheriff and tore down the steel cage in which Witherill was confined in the jail. The prisoner broke up his bed and with a portion of the frame knocked several of the moddown. Three shots were then fired, and Whitherill fell with a shattered shoulder. He was immediately carried, without resistance, a short distance from the jail and hanged to a telegraph pole.

Pacific Coast Rates Settled.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.-After a session lasting twenty-two days, the Transcontinental Association has finished its labors and adjourned. ciation has finished its labors and adjourned. A system of graded rates was agreed upon on traffic going to the Pacific coast. The highest class differential rate in favor of Chicago will be three cents less than from New York, while the lowest class will be ten cents less. St. Louis rates will be 96 per cent. of the Chicago rate, and Missouri River rates 90 per cent. Buffalo and Pittsburg are 20 cents less on the lowest op first-class and five cents less on the lowest class. Cincinnati, Toledo and Detroit are made 25 cents less than New York on the highest class and five cents less on the lowest class.

Desert Land Entries Cancelled.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 5 .- Decisions were endered by the United States Land Office here restorday which cancel fifty-one entries of descrit and held for cancellation by the General Land land held for cancellation by the General Land.

Office on the report of a special agent. By the decision 32,640 acres of the best land in the Territory reverts to the Government. The desert entries were made by fifty-one residents of New York, Massachusetts and New Jersey in the interest of the Union Cattle Company and the Goshen Hole Irrigation Company of this Territory.

Ingredients of Licorice Make it Invalu

HAYTI HAS TROUBLE AHEAD.

WHAT THE OWNERS OF THE HAYTIAN REPUBLIC HAS TO SAY.

They Will Not Give the Correspondence Between the Firm and Secretary Bayard, but Intimate that They Are Sure He Will See that Their Rights Are Protected-The Seizure Was Unlawful.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Boston, Dec. 5 .- The news that Secretary Bayard intended to send the steamer Galena to Hayti to demand the restoration of the Haytian Republic to her owners was taken to the office of B. C. Morse & Co., agents and owners of the Haytian Republic, 30 Commercial street, by an Evening World reporter this morning and the tidings caused evident pleasure, if not absolute joy, among the men in the office.

"I had no idea what action the United States intended to take," said Mr. Morse, but from the tenor of the correspondence which has passed between us, I felt sure that our interests would be protected."

"Are you willing to make the correspond-ence public?" asked the reporter.

"Yes. And no. So far as we, as owners, are concerned, we have no objection, but as we have placed the matter in the hands of the State have placed the matter in the hands of the State Department and are awaiting results we think it would be a breach of courtesy to divulge the exact language and programme of the letters which have passed between us. The Government is at present our attorney. Our case is in the hands of Secretary Bayard. We do not feel like making a move without his consent."

"Can you tell THE EVENING WORLD then?" general nature of the correspondence then?"
was asked.
"Gladly. It has not been voluminous, and simply referred to what we know about the seizure. There was no argument outside of a bare statement of facts."

of a bare statement of facta."

"How many letters have passed?"

"Oh, several. Not ten or a dozen, but several. They were all short and to the point Of course, the first was a letter from us notifying the State Department that our steamer had been captured, and that we believed such seizure to be unlawful and unwarranted Later we were informed that our complaint would be investigated.

"After this several letters were sent informing us how matters were progressing."

"Did Secretary Bayard ever express the idea that the capture of the Haytiau republic was a breach of international courtesy?"

was a breach of international courtesy?"
"Perbaps so, but not in those words. He informed us that he did not recognize the Government of Gen. Legitime as the ruling power in Hayti, rad he was, therefore, of the opinion that the capture of our steamer was opinion that the capture of our steamer unwarranted violation of the laws of

In other words, he thought you had a case against Hayti and that your vessel would be restored to you."
"We inferred as much from his letters; still we will not say your conclusions are

"Did he say that the United States recogs wholly accurate."
"Did he say that the United States recogs mized any Government in Hayti?"
"I do not remember that he did. The blockade put on by Gen, Legitime was not known to the Government at Washington, and that fact alone was enough to make our claim good." claim good."
"What do you propose to do now, Mr.
Morse?"

Morse?"
"I propose to keep quiet and await the action of the United States. I am very well pleased with the way Secretary Bayard has conducted affairs thus far."
"Your agents in New York say you intend to bring suit against Hayti for damages. Is it so?"

it so?"
'They were not authorized to make any such talk. It was wholly without our con-

HATTI HEARS FROM US.

She Must Give Up the Illegally Seized

Hayti must give up the steamer Haytian Re oublic, lately seized and sold at Port au Prince.
This is the conclusion arrived at in the State Department at Washington, and the U. S. corvette Galena will, it is expected, be des satched to Port an Prince within the day to make the final demand for the steamer's re-

Secretary Bayard decides that the validity of the seizure and subsequent proceedings in the case of the Haytian Republic cannot be ad-mitted.

The Haytian Consulate in this city was notified of the decision on Sunday, but it has just been made public.

His Severe Sentence Killed Him.

PRILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.-Pilot William T Eldridge, who was suspended from duty for three months by the Port Wardens on Monday last, died yesterday at his home in Cold Springs, Cape May County, N. J. His death was caused by grief over the severe sentence inflicted upon him by the Port Wardens. The offense for which he was suspended was the running of the steamship Lord Gough aground in the Delaware River in October last. Eldridge was over sixty years old, and for forty years had piloted vessels up and down the bay without misfortune. His father spent his life upon the sea, and he has sons and brothers now following the same occupation.

They Bagged Four Men and $65. Stoux Crry, Dec. 5.—A bold attempt was made Monday morning to rob the safe in the office of the Pooge packing-house. About 1 o'clock four masked men rushed upon Thomas Coleman, the masked men rushed upon Thomas Coleman, the watchman, and overpowered him. A gunny sack was tied over his head, his hands and legs were secured and he was laid down in a corner of the office. As the watchman did not report, the engineer, the assistant engineer and the tank man went successively to see what was wrong, and each in turn was seized and bound like Coleman. The burglars worked hard to open the safe, but at 4 o'clock broke a drill and gave up the job after going through the pockets of the captured men and securing $65.

Thirty members of the Beefsteak Club, whose headquarters are at 80 White street, attended the performance at the Casino last night. The party was headed by Congressman-elect Edward party was headed by Congressman-elect Edward J. Dunphy, who was one of the organizers of the Club. When the play was over the members of the club went in carriages to Clark's restaurant and did not reach their homes until an early hour this morning. Among the prominent members were Charles Flannigan, John E. Malone, Edward Condon, John D. Murray, Michael J. Dwyer, John F. Whalen and Henry Wilkens.

Another Rev. Warren Case. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 5.—A parallel to the case of Rev. Walpole Warren, who was imported from England under contract with Holy Trinity Church, has arisen in this city. Rev. D. I., McCrac, of Cobing, Canada, has been called to the First Presbyterian Church, and this viola-tion of the statute has created a sensation in church circles.

Brothers' Club Reception The first annual reception of the Brothers Club of the city of New York will be held at Adelphia Hall, Fifty-accond street and Seventh avenue, Thursday evening, Dec. c. The music will be furnished by Paster Pecaiva's orchestra. GOOD DOLLARS FOR RICHARD WALKER.

Eight Thousand of Them, Left by His Mother, Await His Call.

Eight thousand good dollars are awaiting the call of Richard Walker, formerly of Providence. Twenty-five years ago James and Annie Walker came from London to this country and settled in Providence. James took up his trade of plastering, and his wife was successful as a of plastering, and his wife was successful as a dressmaker. They had an only child, Richard, then nine years old.

Things ran along smoothly until 1876, when one day James was surprised to find that his wife had left her home. There had been occasional spats between the husband and wife, but never anything serious.

In 1880 James tired of the plastering business and came to New York. He found employment as a private coachman, and dropped out of sight.

ment as a private coachman, and dropped out of sight.

In 1882 the son, Richard, also secured work in New York, but no trace of him is now to be had. When Annie Walker deserted her husband she settled in Kansas City, where she opened a profitable dressmaking business, and almost immediately married one Ned Lawson, a well-todo farmer, who died shortly thereafter, leaving Annie some $12,000.

On March 16, 1886, Annie died, bequeathing her property, reduced to $8,000, to her son Richard. It would have amounted to $26,000 had she not had a penchant for making expensive presents to male friends, such as a $14,000 house and lot in Kansas City, presented by her to a musician who formerly lived in New York.

At present John A. Carr, administrator of the estate, is seeking Richard, he having come to this city from Providence expressly for that purpose. He is quartered at the McPyke Hotel, 50 East Tenth street.

THE BRIDEGROOM OF A YEAR AGO. Pat Divver's Young Son-in-Law Fellowed to the Grave by Thousands The funeral to-day of James V. Coffey, husband of Jennie Divver, daughter of Alderman Pat-rick V. Divver, of the old Fourth Ward, was one of the largest ever noted by the oldest residents in that historic district.

The body of young Mr. Coffey lay in the parlor of his father-in-law's house, 7 Madison street. The coffin was encircled with smilax

The coffin was encircled with smilax and tea roses. Friends of the Divver family gathered by hundreds as early as 0 o'clock to take a last look at the face of the dead and express their sympathy in tears and words of regret, and a hundred members of the Pet Divver Association assembled with black mourning badges on their coat lapels.

Supt. Murray and Inspector Steers, Congressmen-elect Dunphy and McCarthy, Aldermen Tait Sheils, Ryan, Flynn sun Moonan, Police Capt. Carpenter, Sergt. Farley, Detective Carrand Policemen Buckley, Brett and Farney were among those who were present at the obsequies.

The pall-bearers included John Spellman, Jacob Peiser, Thomas W. Churchill, Harry Ryan, Francis Corrigan, John Burt, Dr. W. Namack, Charles J. Auffarth and Thomas M. Farley.

Farley.
The Rev. Father Owens, assisted by Fathers
McMahon and Woods, conducted the mass at 8t.
Andrew's Church in Chambers street. The interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

SPENT THEIR MONEY TOO FREELY. Vork Drummers Mistaken for Pick. pockets at a Fair in Portland.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 5 .- Two young New York drummers had a hard experience here last

They wanted to kill time and so they went to the Catholic fair. They took chances freely, spent money rapidly and were fast making friends, when they were arrested, handcuffed and taken to the station.

There had been some pocketpicking, and they were suspected and pointed out to the officers as suspicious characters.

They were searched, and allowed to go in peace, having proved their innocence. "I never expected," said one, "to be charged with having picked a pocket simply because I spent $20 in one evening."

A MISSING STEWARD FOUND.

He Turned Up as a Possible Murderer at Troy Hills.

The negro who, at Troy Hills, near Morristown, shot a white woman in the breast and then wounded himself in the stomach, has been found to be John Thompson, the missing steward of the schooner Lillie Falkenburg, wanted in this city for robbing the captain's wanted in this city for robbing the captain's cabiniwhile the schooner lay at the foot of Forty-seventh street. North liver.

Mary Parker was the name of the woman whom he shot. She was handsome, but not of good reputation. Thompson claimed that he was married to her and that her unfaithfulness caused his violent sction.

The negro and his victim are in the hospital, the former under guard. The woman may die.

A PECULIAR FIRE.

It Broke Out at Night in an Office Book case in the Big Chelsen Flats.

A servant whose room is in the rear of the big Chelsea Flats, in West Twenty-third street, yelled "fire" shortly after 9 o'clock last night, and Engineer Brown discovered that an ordiand Engineer Brown discovered that an ordi-nary pine bookcase, in the rear of the Heela Iron Works store, on the first floor, was ablaze. An alarm was sent out and in a few minutes a couple of hose lines were run in the building and the blaze extinguished with but slight dam-age. A peculiar circumstance about the fire is that no one can account for its origin. There are no steam pipes around and nothing but a case full of circulars and a small circle on the wall were burned. No one was in the store when the fire broke out.

Belva Still Advertising.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5,—Belva A. Lockwood has arrived in this city from her home in Washington. In conversation with a reousands of votes at the recent election, and thomands of votes at the recent election, and was positive that in the large cities, especially New York and Chicago, the poll-workers confiscated her ballots. She declared that she had evidence to land several ward heelers in the lower part of New York in Sing Sing.

"I may contest the election yet," she added.

"Yes, if my friends succeed in gathering any new evidence of fraud I intend contesting the legality of the election."

Belva did not smile as she ended her talk.

Typhoid Fever in Providence.

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 5. - There has been a sudden increase in the number of typhoid fever cases reported during the past five days, and the disease is now more prevalent than at any time since 1882. There are twenty-five cases in this city. The recent excessive rainfall is thought to have some councetion with the origin of the disease, as similar conditions pre-vailed six years ago.

For the Benefit of His Creditors. (From the Chicago Tribane.)
"Can you bear a piece of bad news, Amelia?" boarsely whispered the merchant to his "What is it, Cyrus?" she exclaimed,

"What is it, Cyrus?" she exclaimed,
"Don't keep me in suspense!"
"I have made an assignment for the benefit of my creditors."
"Oh, Cyrus! Then we'll have'to give up this honse, and the carriage, and the scalskin sacques I had ordered for the girls?"
"Well, no, Amelia, it's hardly so bad as that. But I think we'd better discharge the creatment of "

"But you've assigned for the benefit of the creditors. Wou't they get everything?" "Amelia, your ignorance of vasiness is ab-solutely pathetic."

2 O'CLOCK.

SOMEWHAT MIXED.

Not Clear Yet How Gambler Phil Daly Was Shot,

Addie and Ella Arraigned at Jefferson Market To-Day.

The Former Says She First Knew Daly Four Years Ago.

Addie Stanton and Ella Hammond, in whose Fourth avenue flat Phil Daly was shot, showed the wear and tear of two nights in prison cell when an Evening World reporter saw them in the West Thirtieth street station.

house this morning.

Their faces were wan and dirty-looking. Their cloaks and dresses looked slovenly.

Their hats were awry. Their hair was rumpled and Miss Stanton's vas of two colors, mud and golden yellow. The first is the original color of her hair The wash to produce the golden yellow can be bought in any drug store. There had been enough of it on Miss Stanton's tresses, but it is gradually wearing off, and as it fades away she looks less and less lovely.

In fact there is nothing of the seductive siren about either her or Mrs. Hammond, and people are asking more carnestly than ever What did Phil Daly see in such a woman as Stanton is?"

That they were well acquainted is the prev-

That they were well acquainted is the prevalent opinion now.
Capt. Reilly, in conversation with The Evening World representative to-day, said, "My private opinion is that Daly and Stanton were acquainted some time."
"What makes you think so?"
"Many things that I have discovered and put together, forming a chain of evidence that is pretty strong. Stanton declares she knew him well."

"What do you know of Stanton yourself, Captain?"

"What do you know of Stanton yoursen, Captain?"
"I know that she is an 'angel.'"
"An angel; that is, in Sixth avenue parlance. The angels you hear of about the Haymarket and such places are vastly different from those you are told about in church. You would never hear of Addie Stanton in church. She is a well-known angel on Sixth church. She is a well-known angel on Sixth avenue, though.

"She is the guardian angel of wealthy old men. That is, she protects them from every one but herself and angels friendly to her."

"How long has she been in this city?"

"Four years. She came from the western part of the State. She has been married twice and divorced once."

The Captain could not give the names in the marriage certificates which were found by his detectives, along with a decree of divorce, in Addie's small desk. One of the detectives, however, thought that Stanton was the name of her first husband and Henry Linston that of her second.

In addition to these names she was known as Ettie Edgecombe when she occupied the five rooms on the third floor of the flat house at 219 West Twentieth street.

at 219 West Twentieth street.

five rooms on the third floor of the flat house at 219 West Twentieth street.

While she has always been noted for her love for wealthy old men, she has been equally noted for her weakness for young men. One or two of such have always been seen about her various residences, and were generally represented as being her brothers or something.

When young men were scarce or fought shy of her, she would go out looking for them, and it was while on such missions that she was arrested twice in raids made on a comple of houses in the tenderloin precinct. Then she opened a place of her own, but that was raided and closed by the police. She says that she met Phil Daly, sr., four years ago. That is about the time Capt. Relly says she came to this city.

She was younger then, and not an "angel." Good-looking, young moneyed men were glad to know her for a while, and there was an effort made to put her on the stage.

It did not succeed. Addie has never been on the stage, unless in some minor part for a short time. She was found of wine, high living and fine dresses, and never minded the cost as long as she got them.

When she became acquainted with the Hammond woman is not known exactly, but it is supposed to be about a year and a half ago, when Mrs. Hammond was keeping house for a number of ladies in West Thirty-second street.

Both are very shrewd women.

house for a number of ladies in West I mirtysecond street.

Both are very shrewd women.

They went into partnership.

They established a bureau of information.

Men about town learned that Addie and Nellie could tell just about how much a man was worth, if he carried money, and if it was easy to get it from him or not.

It is believed that some gamblers made use of the women as decoys to lure men to their gaming rooms. However this may be, the police theory is now that Daly and Stanton at least were acquainted.

least were acquainted.

He did not need to receive a note of invitation to visit her. He went voluntarily. When he got there he found another man or traces of him in Miss Stanton's room. He got mad.

Addie screamed for help. Linston 'and Hammond rushed in from the inner room. Some one drew a pustol. A struggle for possession of it ensued, and Linston (Addie's friend) got it.

Some one drew a pistol. A struggle for possession of it ensued, and Linston (Addie's friend) got it.

In the excitement of the moment he fired at the old sport, whose blood was up, and who could easily have whipped Hammond and Linston alone.

The bullet quelled his passion, While he was groping at the door trying to get out the men left by the kitchen door, and got out ahead of him.

Addie Stanton's hands are all scratched and cut. She says she burned them.

Mr. Daly denies positively that he ever knew her. An Eversino World reporter asked him: "Where are the letters the woman sent you?"

"Oh, I burned them up," he answered.

"The three of them?"

"Yes."

A gambler, who ought to know, said:
"Daly tells it well, but I do not believe his story. One thing I know is that the $30,000 in Government bonds that he said he had were only that amount of stock of a driving park in New Jersey worth about fifteen cents on the dollar."

Mr. Daly scouted this statement.

Mr. Daly scouted this statement. reporter met a young man this morn ing who told him that he had once answered an ad in a newspaper, which said that a hand-some young woman desired to make the ac-quaintance of a young man. Object matriquaintance of a young man. Object matrimony.

He answered it and met Addie Stanton.

"She dressed very well." he said, "and was a glib talker. She claimed to have just arrived from San Francisco. She referred to it as 'Frisco continually. She told me she expected to go to London this December.

"She said she had been on the stage, and had the names of all the small actors and actresses by heart. She referred continually to the Rialto.

"She invited me to call at 219 West Twentreases by heart. She referred continually to the Rialto.

"She invited me to call at 219 West Twentieth street on the 8th of September last, but before the time arrived I got a note from her telling me she was going to Long Branch to see a friend and would be back on the following Monday."

When the reporter attempted to interview Miss Stanton this morning she declared emphatically:

"I will not talk with you reporters. I have nothing to say, anyhow, until I see my lawyer."

nothing to say, anyhow, until I see my saw yer."

"Who is he?"

She would not answer the reporter, but she told Capt. Relily that his name was Le Bar-bier, of 35 Broadway. Soon after she and Mrs. Hammond, escorted by Capt. Reilly, Detective Britt and The Evenino Wonld re-porter, left the station-house. They boarded a bobtail car at Seventh avenue and went to Jefferson Market Police Court.

Lawyer LeBarbier was there waiting for them.

Lawyer LeBarbier was there waiting for them.

He told the reporter that he had known Addie for some time.

"Was she ever on the stage?"

"I guess so. I believe she was."

"How long have you known her?"

"Oh, I don't know."

"Where was she living when you knew her first?"

"I've forgotten."

"Where did you last see her?"

"Thirty-eighth street, I think."

"East or West?"

"West, I think. Yes, it must have been West."

What was the number of the house?"

"Really I've for other nower, that he would get all the information he could from his client for the press this afternoon.

The women were arraigned before Justice Gorman. Assistant District-Attorney Hartman appeared for the people.

Gorman. Assistant District-Attorney Hartman appeared for the people.

He had a note from Dr. Smith, of 26
West Thirtieth street, stating that Mr. Daly was too ill to leave his house, and could not do so before Friday at the earliest.

In view of this Mr. Hartman asked to have the case adjourned until then.

At first Lawyer LeBarbier wanted the case to go on, and asked for the "discharge of these ladies."

Every one smiled.

Every one smiled.
"What have they done?" asked the

"What have they done?" asked the lawyer.
This innocent question caused more smiles.
"If you insist on going on with the case now we'll have the complaint drawn up, and then you will know what they have done, if you do not know," said Justice Gorman.
"I am ready," said Mr. Le Barbier.
"Make your complaint," said his Honor to Detective Hayes.
The lawyer had a whispered consultation with his clients, after which he retracted his desire to go on, and the case was set down peremptorily for Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

'clock.
There were a dozen Headquarters detec-ives in court, but not one of them could say be had ever seen Addie or her companion bebe had ever seen Addie or her companion before.

Mr. Le Barbier wanted to know if he could not consult with his clients at the West Thirtieth street station-house.

Mr. Hariman said he had no objection if Sunt. Murray consented.

Thereupon Capt. Rellly started for Headquarters to see it it could be arranged, and the lawyer said he would be at the station-house at 4 r. M. to find out.

The women were taken back to their prison cells, and another act in this mysterious, romantic, puzzling drama was ended.

BEGINNING TO CRYSTALLIZE.

Who Will Be in Gen. Harrison's Cabinet Gen. Harrison's Cabinet solution is beginning to crystallize.

James G. Blaine has arranged to take up his esidence in Washington, which is said to mean that if he is not to be Secretary of State he will e the power behind the throne and grand direcor of the new Administration's policy.

Vice-Chairman John S. Clarkson, of the Re-

Vice-Chairman John S. Clarkson, of the Republican National Committee, is pulling up his carpets and tagging his household effects. For Washington," and his intimate friends in Des Moines say that he has been offered and has accepted the Secretaryship of the Interior.

Next week Vice-President-elect Levi P. Morton will make the visit to Gen. Harrison, which The Evenino World was the first to announce.

Gen. Harrison has been notified to expect Mr. and Mrs. Morton on Wednesday of next week, and the New York banker will remain with the Harrison family for the balance of the week, probably.

Mr. Morton will be the messenger who will bear to Gen. Harrison the wishes and desires of the New York leaders and those of Mr. Riaine, and when he leaves the vexed question, who will be New York's Cabinet representative and who is to peddle Federal patronage in the Empire State, will be definitely settled.

Ex-Senator Platt is still looked upon as the Cabinet member. Mr. Morton is expected to plead for him and overcome Gen. Harrison's predilection in favor of Warner Miller.

Gen. Harrison's known regard for Miller, and his desire to reward him for his sacrifices in aid of the National ticket lead the Herkimer statesman's friends and supporters to believe that he will not be ignored, however.

ARGUING FOR THE SUGAR TRUST.

Mr. Carter Insists That It's Not a Monop ely, Nor a Violation of Law. The hearing in the case of The People against the North River Sugar Refining Company went on this morning before Judge Barrett, in the supreme Court, Special Term. James C. Carter, counsel for the defendants. continued his argument. He said the combina-tion of sugar refining companies was not in-tended as a monopoly for the manufacture of sugar, or for the purpose of increasing the price of it.

Sugar, or for the purpose of increasing the price of it.

Sugar was a commodity that was only limited by the inability to manufacture.

The raw material was unlimited in supply and all that was required for its manufacture was capital and labor. There were other commodities that were by nature restricted in supply, and a combination to control such, for the purpose of increasing their value, might come under the head of a violation of the law.

Sugar was not a necessary of life, Mr. Carter argued, although it is so generally used by people over all the globe that it might be very nearly so considered.

Shot by Her Drunken Husband. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

HAVERHILL, Mass., Dec. 5.—James O'Neil, employed in the Thomb hat factory, and living mear the foot of River street, reached home drunk about 9 o'clock last night. He went into the kitchen, drew a revolver and shot his wife four times in the head. O'Neil was captured. The woman will probably die.

The Thief Had a Key. About $400 worth of leather belting was stolen last night from the store of W. Schwenken, 105 John street. The parter found the door locked this morning and no violence had been used. The thief must have had a key.

SCAPED DEATH BY MIRACLE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

MAGGIES MAD LEAP FIN, THE TOP OF THE BIG HUDSON RIVER WALL.

But a Few Feet From Where She Fell the Express Came Rushing Along—The De-mented Girl at First Accused Venerable Mr. Maier of Criminal Assault, but Afterwards Retracted.

Margaret Friedelum, a servant girl, threw herself from the wall at the foot of West Beve enty-first street, at 9.30 last night, to the ground below, a distance of forty-five feet with suicidal intent. The freight tracks and yard of the Hudson River Railroad are here, and Brakeman John O'Brien, of Albany, who was on the track, saw the form of the young woman descend-He ran to her, and gathering her up, carried her into a switchman's shanty. Officer Matthew Hogan and an ambulance were ried her into a switchman's shanty. Officer Matthew Hogan and an ambulance were summoned and the woman, who had not lost consciousness, was taken to the Ninetyninth Street Hospital.

Here she related that her employer, Andrew Maier, of 163 West Seventy-first street, had made a criminal assault upon her, and she had attempted to end her life lest her ruin be complete.

An officer went post haste to the house of Mr. Maier, a retured cabinet-maker of patriarchical white beard and hair. He was about retiring but returned with the officer to the bedside of the would-be a neide.

But "Maggie," as the patriarch addressed her, recanted her previous story and said there was nothing in it. Just then a police-man entered and he said he had ridden down from Harlem with Mr. Maier at about the time of the alleged assault.

Mr. Maier was released, and this morning the girl, strange to say, was in a fair way to be ready for arraignment in Harlem Police Court to-morrow for attempted suicide. She had received only bruises and a shock by her big tumble.

There is only seven feet of turf between the foot of the wall from which she lessed and the railway track, and the "Dolly" train came thundering along on that track ten minutes after her leap.

At the home of Mr. Maier, who is a widower of seventy years, living with his three grown-up daughters, it was stated that the girl had been a part of the household for a year. That she had no friends in America and suffered with periodical nis of melancholy and depression, and that one of these fits was on yesterday. She left the house at about 8.30 o'clock.

At the hospital Dr. Dunn declared the story of a criminal assault to be entirely without foundation, the evidence being indisputably to the contrary. The young woman had been suffering from hysters, and leaped during a fit of aberration.

That Miss Friedelum escaped death is almost miraculous. The wall from which she leaped is at the south end of the Riverside drive.

IS IT GOOD-BY FOR GOOD ? The Eighth's Machine to Be Thrown Out at To-Night's Meeting. It looks like a unanimous "grand bounce" of the John J. O'Brien machine in the Eighth Assembly District by the Republican County Committee to-night.

Barney Bigkin, of the Eighteenth District, was the only friend Johnny had at the meeting of the Executive Committee last night, even such old friends as Johnny Grimes, of the First; Frank Carroll, of the Fifth, and Johnny Simpson, of the Sixth Districts, having become too politically pure to longer associate with the gentleman from the Eighth.

Big Six's Election. Typographical Union No 6 has its annual election to-day and this evening, and its 6,000 members take as much interest in it as they do in the election of a President of the United

The candidates for President are James M. Duncan, renominated, and W. E. Boselly. Both are popular, and a nip-and-tuck contest is expected. "Dunk" McLeod is the opponent of Thomas J. Condon for the Vice-Presidency. For Secretary Theodore C. Wildman, and expresident Everett Glackin are candidates. George H. Moore and Exra B. Harney are candidates for Treasurer, and John J. Davis and Thomas J. Robinson for Sergeant-at-Arms, Then there are three Trustees and twelve Executive Committeemen to be elected.

Morning Blaze at Portland, Coun.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
PORTLAND, Conn., Dec. 5.—Early this morning fire broke out in a barn on Main street. The flames soon spread to adjoining buildings. E. E. Ellsworth's store was totally destroyed; Anderson & Wilion's grocery store, partly consumed. The Central School-House and the bara where the fire originated were also totally destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $16,000. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

Shot Herself Through the Head. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,)
WATERTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 5.—Miss Anna May Moore, eighteen years of age, shot herself through the head and died an hour later at

Antwerp, this county, last night. Miss Moore was highly accomplished and of excellent character. The cause of the deed is unknown. The Last Rounty Certificate Paid. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTSBURG, Dec. 5, -Allegheny County has just paid the last outstanding credit certificate of $50, being the bounty given to volunteers in 1862 by the county to precinde the necessity of a draft to complete the quota of men required by the Government. The total issue amounted

A Hawser Slipped and Killed Him. Jacob Haddock, fifty years old, steward on the schooner Andrew Patterson, from Canada, was this morning attending to a hawser which had this morning attending to a hawser which had been attached to a tug, when the hawser ran foul of a cleet, and, slipping off, struck Had-dock a terrible blow on the chest. He was thrown senseless a couple of feet away and died in a few minutes.

Paruell Commission and the Holidays. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] NDON, Dec. 5.-The Parnell Commis will adjourn on the 15th inst. for the helidays, meeting again on Jan. 15.

Bright's Condition Unchanged. INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, Dec. 5.—The bulletin from Bochdale reports that Mr. Bright's condition is un-changed.

Light Rains, Warmer Weather. WASHINGTON, Dec. S.

For Eastern Nas York-Light rain